

A hexagonal grid of 1000 cells arranged in a circular pattern. Most cells are black, but a central cluster of cells is colored in various shades of purple, pink, red, orange, and yellow. Each colored cell contains a numerical value. The values range from 336 to 1729. The colored cells are concentrated in the upper right quadrant of the grid.

